WASHINGTON, August 9.—The following document has been obtained from official sources:

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, August 5, 1867.

MR. PRESIDENT: The application of Chas. A. Dunham having been referred to this office, in the customary order of Executive business, for the examination and advisory action of the Attorney General, it has become my duty, during the indisposition and absence of the distinguished incumbent of the Law Department, carefully to consider the case. In respectfully declining, as I do, to offer at present any recommendation in the premises, I beg to submit for your consideration the reasons which constrain me to reserve advice and suspend judgment until I shall have been further instructed by your Excellency.

Dunham, the person applying for pardon, is the same who has become notorious under the name of Sanford Conover. He was recently convicted of perjury in the District of Columbia, and is, as I am informed, now incarcerated, in accordance with the sentence of the court. His application seems to be predicated, in part, upon a supposed technical irregularity in the constitution of the jury, and is supported mainly by the services which he is alleged to have rendered the cause of justice in aiding the prosecuting counsel in the collection of evidence and otherwise upon the trial of John H. Surratt for murder.

The papers upon which his application is grounded, and by which it is sustained, consist of four in a parcel, which, by endorsement, appear to have reached the Executive office on Saturday, the 27th of July, 1867. The first is dated the 22d of July, and is written upon the ordinary note paper used by members of the House of Representatives, with an engraved vignette caption. The following is a copy:

FORTIETH CONGRESS UNITED STATES, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22, 1867.—Gentlemen: I suggest that a petition something like the enclosed be prepared and signed by you for the pardon of Mr. Dunham. I think he is clearly entitled to it, and hope you will aid him all you can.

Respectfully,
J. M. ASHLEY.

Hon. J. Holt, Hon. A. G. Riddle.

It would seem from an expression used in this note that a draft of a petition was enclosed. It does not appear what petition was thus designated.

The next paper is the following from a late Representative in Congress from Ohio, now a member of the Washington bar:

WASHINGTON, July 23, 1867.—To the President of the United States—Sir: I was early in April last retained to aid the Government in the prosecution of John H. Surratt, and took the general management of the preparation of the case.

The labor and difficulties of the case were great, and the Government is under great obligations to Charles A. Dunham for much valuable information both as to the facts and witnesses for the United States and for the history of and facts concerning the witnesses called for the defence. Although in jail he managed to keep informed of the progress of the case, and from time to time communicated important facts and suggestions, and seemingly for the sole purpose of a fair investigation of the case, whether it would work for his benefit or not. It seems to me that for his services in this behalf the Government should mark its appreciation of them in a way not to be mistaken.

Respectfully, A. G. RIDDLE.

Nothing is among the papers from the office of the District Attorney or from any of the counsel in the Surratt case, excepting Mr. Riddle.

The next recommendation is from the Bureau of Military Justice:

WASHINGTON, July 24, 1867.—I concur with the Hon. A. G. Riddle in his estimate of the value and importance of the service rendered by Charles A. Dunham, as set forth in the foregoing letter to the President. A principle of public policy leads governments to encourage, by all honorable means, those charged with crime to make disclosures which may and often do, result in unmasking even greater offenders than those who make them; and hence, when they are found to have acted voluntarily and in good faith, the highest public considerations require that their conduct shall be generously appreciated. The service of Dunham, with the details of which Mr. Riddle must be entirely familiar, as one of the counsel in the case, seem to have been performed without solicitation, and in the interests of truth and justice, in connection with one of the most important criminal trials which has occurred in the history of the country; and although his disclosures were not directly connected with the criminality of which he himself has been convicted, yet it is believed that they do not the less bring his case within the spirit and reason of the rule of policy referred to, and hence it is for the Executive to determine how far they shall be accepted at once as a proof of his repentance, and as atonement to the law, for whose violation he stands condemned. J. HOLT

It may be proper to remark that the recommendation of the Judde Advocate General is written upon one leaf of the same sheet with that of Mr. Riddle, and not upon official paper.

It will be observed that, notwithstanding this man stood condemned for perjury, Mr. Riddle by actual experience, and Judge Holt, upon satisfactory grounds of belief, have fully realized his usefulness in promoting by his cooperation with public agents of justice the casue of truth, on the occasion of an investigation of national importance; and also, that the latter intimates his opinion that he had fairly atoned to the offended law, and had satisfactorily demonstrated his repentance. It is remarkable that Dunham himself, in his petition (which purports to be in his own handwriting) mentions no such grounds, but trusts mainly to a technicality. His petition is as follows:

WASHINGTON, July 25, 1867.—To his Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States: The petition of Charles A. Dunham respectfully shows that in the month of January last he was tried, convicted, and sentenced to the penitentiary for perjury, alleged to have been committed before the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives, during the investigation by said committee of charges against Jeff Davis of complicity in the conspiracy to assassinate President Lincoln.

That the perjury assigned in the indictment against your petitioner was in having falsely testified that he had no reason to doubt, and did not doubt, the truthfulness of certain depositions made by two persons, called Campbell and Snevel, at the time said depositions were given by them in the Bureau of Military Justice, and in testifying that he had last seen said Campbell in Canada in June, 1865, and said Snevel in Wilmington, N. C., in August 1865.

That on the trial of your petitioner, said Campbell and Snevel declared that their real names were House and Roberts, and that the depositions they had made and sworn to in the Bureau of Military Justice were absolutely false from beginning to end, and were known to be so by your petitioner, and that they were not at—; said Campbell in Canada in June, 1865, or said Snevel in Wilmington in August, 1865, the places at which your petitioner claimed to have last seen them.

That it was entirely upon this testimony of said self-convicted perjurers that your petitioner was convicted, and that without the said testimony of said persons, the jury before whom your petitioner was tried could not have found a verdict of guilty.

Your petitioner further says that he was tried and convicted by a jury not qualified to try him. That the jurors before whom he was so tried and condemned were illegally selected and drawn, as decided by the Court in the case of John H. Surratt—the manner and form of selecting the jurors in the case of Surratt, and your petitioner being identical—that in the discussion on the opening of the trial of Surratt, as to the legal qualification of the jurors who had been empanelled to try him, it was contended by the prosecution and decided by the Court, that said jurors were informally and irregularly selected and drawn, and that any verdict they might render upon any trial would be absolutely void.

Your petitioner further says that under the rules and practice of the Supreme Court of this District the above informality in the selection and drawing of a jury does not, after sentence under a verdict found by such a jury, constitute a ground for a new trial or other relief by the court, and that the only remedy for such an illegal conviction lies in an application to the Executive for pardon. CHARLES A. DUNHAM.

The above are all the papers which have come to my knowledge in relation to the application for pardon. When considered in connection with other papers, adventitiously received, they excite peculiar interest and command careful attention, and it is the extraordinary gravity of the import of these papers last mentioned in connection with the source whence they came, which makes it my delicate duty to submit their contents for your studious consideration, and suggest that some proper disposition ought to be made of them in consonance with the dignity of the Government and in justice to all parties. I introduce them as follows:

First. A communication addressed to the President of the United States, bearing date Washington, July 29th, 1867, and signed Charles A. Dunham. It will be seen that this person, who is testified to by gentlemen of official and professional responsibility and of distinguished sagacity to be capable of great and valuable service in the disclosures of crime, makes startling asseverations directly against prominent members of the national Legislature.

WASHINGTON, July 29, 1867,—To his Excellency, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States: In applying to your Excellency for pardon, I had not intended to offer any disclosures concerning the plotting of your enemies against you which could be regarded as inducement for granting my application. I instructed my wife, in presenting the petition, to refer to the conspiracy of Ashley and company so far only as appeared necessary to remove any unfriendly feeling that might have been engendered within you toward me by the newspaper reports that I had engaged to assist your enemies in their nefarious designs. I adopted this reserve in the belief that the services I had rendered the Government, as certified to by Judge Holt, the Hon. Mr. Riddle and Mr. Ashley, would, in your view and judgment, render me deserving of Executive clemency; and because I desired that it should appear on the record, and on the face of my pardon, that clemency had been extended to me solely in consideration of my services to the Government, and exclusively on the recommendation of prominent Radicals, to the end that, whe nI should come to expose the atrocious plot of Ashley and company, the Radicals would not be in a position or able to charge me with doing so in consideration of a pardon; or that the President had pardoned me on condition of my implicating his enemies in an infamous conspiracy.

From the moment I was forced into association with these traitors and conspirators, I determined, as soon as I should be released, to place in the hands of your Excellency or lay before the public a complete exposure of their diabolical designs and most astounding proceedings. This, I believe, would be my sacred duty; for, although accused of crime, I am not so destitute of honor and patriotism as not to feel some interest in and obligations to my country.

The interest these persons have felt, and the effort they have made (which would have succeeded ere this but for the blunder of one of them), and which they still propose to make for my release (F. G.), I know were prompted by the most selfish motives, in order that they might use me as an instrument to accomplish their devilish designs; and I shall not, therefore, be guilty of ingratitude in abandoning and exposing their villainy.

My wife has, I believe, explained to you how Ashley, first through his man Friday, Matchett, and afterwards in person, managed to make known to me his wishes, aims and purposes, and enlist me, as far as a forced promise would go, in his enterprise. I shall, therefore, only advert here to some things which have been said and done by the conspirators, which are susceptible of being proved against them by the most irrefutable evidence.

After obtaining my promises to render all the assistance in my power, Mr. Ashley explained to me the kind of evidence he thought it most advisable to present against you. He thought it would be very plausible to prove:

First. That Booth had on several occasions paid you familiar visits at the Kirkwood. This, it was hoped, I might be able to induce some of the old female servants to testify to. If this could not be done, then it should be proved by some of my friends who happened to be at the house at the time, who knew Booth, &c., and saw the visit Secondly. That your corespondence with Booth, which should be shown by one or more persons who had taken notes from Booth to you, and your replies (contents unknown) thereto to Booth. The witnesses should be persons who would profess to have been intimate with Booth, and to have been enlisted by him to take part in the assassination.

Thirdly. That the placing of Atzerott, with weapons, at the Kirkwood House, was only a sham—although Atzerott was not aware of it—to make it appear that you were intended as a victim, and thus distract all suspicion from you of conniving at Lincoln's murder. These, also it was suggested, could testify that they had been induced to enter into the conspiracy with Booth, and had performed a part of organizing it, etc., which persons, it was to be understood were induced to testify under an assurance from the government that they should not be presented for any part they had taken.

The resolution under which Butler's committee was appointed, it will be observed, provides for the protection of such persons—who are furnished with a good excuse for not coming forward before—by offering immunity to all who were connected with the conspiracy who will now come forward and disclose their knowledge on the subject.

Fourthly. That Booth, just after the 4th March, stated to intimate friends in N. York, whom he endeavored to enlist in the conspiracy, that he was acting with the knowledge of the Vice-President, and that it had been arranged to kill Lincoln on the day of the inauguration, which would account for Mr. Johnson's strange conduct on that occasion, which had provoked so much comment in the press. That you expected the tragedy to be enacted then and had taken several potations to compose and nerve you for the event; and that you were not so much intoxicated as nervous and excited.

I feel much delicacy in referring to such topics, but I cannot inform you of your enemies' plans and projects without being plain, and I am obliged to write in too great haste to be choice in my language.

I assured Ashley that I should have no difficulty in finding persons of good standing and moral character to prove these matters, and it was agreed that I would do so as soon as released. [A. F. G.]

As an earnest that I possessed the ability to do what I engaged, and in order to satisfy some of their party who doubted the existence of evidence to connect you with the assassination conspiracy, Ashley and Butler desired and pressed me to send for two or three persons of whose intelligence and qualifications they could satisfy themselves, and whom they could parade before their incredulous friends.

I consented, and Ashley supplied the facts it was desired they should know and repeat, and I forwarded them to a trusty friend, with secret explanations for him to procure two other friends to commit to memory the statements enclosed to him, and when sent for to come here and repeat them (but not under oath) to such persons as I should indicate.

After allowing my friends sufficient time to learn their parts, the Rev. Mr. Matchet (B) was sent for then, in order that i. might be said that he, agent for the impeachers, had found the witnesses, and that their character for veracity was above suspicion.

On arriving here these persons were inspected by Ashley and Butler, and were found to possess the requisite qualifications as to intelligence and personal appearance, but unfortunately for the inspectors, it was deemed necessary to make some changes, modifications in some and additions to other portions of their statements, before presenting them to the lukewarm Radicals upon it was their intention to inflame. It being impracticable for the men to meet at the jail on such business, and equally so for me to communicate to them the desired changes and necessary explanations in writing to enable them to incorporate those changes in their original statements without leading to confusion or contradiction, it was found necessary for somebody else to take my office of preceptor, &c.—This, with slight hesitation, was done by Mr. Ashley, on my assurance that the parties were Radicals, dyed in the wool, and men of honor in whom he could safely repose confidence.

I have learned both from Ashley and the parties themselves what was said and done between them in the matter. The statements they were desired to make were revised and Mr. Ashley and they were assured by him that in case it should be determined to examine them before the committee they should be splendidly rewarded.

Mr. Ashley also discoursed to them on the propriety and justice of the course it was proposed to pursue to make certain of the impeachment of the President. He declared that you were a traitor to your party and country, &c. That there was no doubt of your complicity in the assassination conspiracy, but that the evidence was in the hands of your friends and could not all be got at. That enough, however, had been secured to satisfy most reasonable men of your guilt; but that in order to satisfy the most exacting, the statement of these persons before the committee would be requisite.—That the end fully justified the means, and that every man who contributed in this way to the impeachment of the President would deserve well of the country, and that he (Mr. Ashley) would see them rewarded tenfold when your successor should come into power.

Subsequently the parties were presented to Mr. Butler, and after being inspected and passed by him, were introduced by him and Ashley to the several Radical members of the House, who, it was understood, had hitherto doubted the existence of evidence implicating you in the assassination conspiracy, and who informally interrogated them as to the matters upon which they had been instructed. [A.]

Mr. Butler desired to have taken the depositions of these men at the time, but I would not consent to its being done until I should be released, as at first agreed.

These facts can be proved by these persons, and also by my wife, whose character for truth and veracity is not inferior to Mr. Ashley's, and I shall take pleasure, if at liberty, in producing them before any committee or tribunal for the impeachment of the impeachers.

But the evidence of this conspiracy does not depend entirely upon oral proof. The letters from Ashley, herewith enclosed, in themselves speak volumes. What statment (B) from me could he have wanted, and for what purpose? Anything it was in my power to state to him could have been stated to him orally a dozen times during his previous visits to me.

The statment he wanted was this, and for this purpose. There were many prominent Radicals, and especially among his own constitutents, who were lukewarm on the subject of impeachment, who were not prepared to believe that you were privy to the murder of Lincoln, and whose co-operation was greatly needed. Ashley therefore desired to be able to place before them assurances that the most unquestionable evidence of your guilt could be produced. He therefore requested me to prepare an elaborate paper, setting forth that such and such persons could be produced who knew and would testify to this, that and the other thing, including the pretensions that Booth had been seen in your room several times; that you had corresponded with him and with parties in Richmond; and that the persons who could testify to these facts were of the most respectable standing, and would come forward and tell all they knew, if protected by the government. He wished me to put it in a style and tone that would be sure to carry conviction with it. He desired that in addition to the points of evidence we had conferred about, my statement should contain others, and he gave me a memorandum of other points, which he requested me to incorporate in my statement (B).—This memorandum I inclosed, and I believe it is in Matchett's handwriting (A). After preparing the statement I sent it to him at Toledo, where he wished to make use of it (C).

There is another note from Ashley inclosed worthy of attention. It is in pencil, and was written at the office of Judge Cartter, (E F.) after the failure, through the blundering of Matchett, to secure my release at the time promised, because angry, and used pretty severe language to Matchett. He went to Ashley and Butler in alarm, and reported that I was going to expose the entire scheme to you.

After the persons I had sent for to New York as witnesses, had returned, Matchett endeavored without my knowledge to persuade them to come here again, and in his letters to two of them he thoughtlessly suggested some additions that it was desired they should make to their statements. He made these suggestions by letter, as his letters explained, because he was not certain that he should be here when they arrived, or they might meet Judge Bingham, or some other person they had been introduced to when previously here, before he could see them and give them points, and he therefore wanted them "posted."

After my talking to him so severly on account of the failure to have me released at the time promised, Mr. Matchett became frightened, and seemed to get the idea that I had letters to those parties, and had sent them, or copies of them, to you. Possibly, in my anger, I thus uttered as much.—He, therefore, made known his fears to Ashley and Butler, and Ashley endeavored by this note to obtain the letters.

I have just been ordered to get ready for the penitentiary.

CHARLES A. DUNHAM.

The following are the several papers which accompany the above. The letters of reference inserted in the foregoing and annexed to the succeeding are not upon the original, but are introduced solely for your convenience in perusing the report.

The subjoined paper, headed memorandum by the hand that wrote it, bears internal evidence of having been furnished as a guide to some persons or persons who were expected to fabricate corresponding testimony:

[A]. Memorandum.—Shortly before the inauguration of Lincoln and Johnson, the latter, through or in connection with Booth, sent several letters to the Confederacy, one of which was intended for Jefferson Davis. These letters were borne by a messenger named Allen, who provided with a safe conduct through our picket lines, and was supposed to have been sent on secret duty in connection with his command. He was also provided with papers from a rebel emissary at the North to insure his proper treatment when he should enter the Confederate lines. After delivering his mail in Richmond, he returned bearing several letters, which he received from J. P. Benjamin. These letters were enclosed to Booth.

On returning to Washington Allen called on Booth and delivered the package, and Booth, after examning some of the letters, went out, as he said, in search of his messenger. The messenger could not be found, and Booth asked Allen if he was too tired to walk as far as the Kirkwood House. Allen replied in the negative, when Booth drawing forth the package which had been brought from Richmond, selected a letter addressed to Andrew Johnson, Vice-President of the United States, and asked Allen to deliver it. Allen promised to do so and then accompanied Booth to the bar-room to first take a drink.

Here Allen met a friend, who was invited to join them in taking a drink, and afterwards accompanied him to the Kirkwood House and heard him inquire if Mr. Johnson was in and saw him go into his (Johnson's) room. This friend waited until Allen came down stairs, when he asked him jocularly, what in the devil's business he had to do with Johnson; if he was already begging for an office.

Allen can be produced as well as the friend who accompanied him to Kirkwood House with Booth. Allen before going to Richmond, had been induced by Booth to believe that he was a confidential and secret agent of the government, and that the letters brought by him had reference to peace propositions which would speedily tend to a suspension of hostilities and the restoration of the Union. Add also, that it can further be proved by two persons, formerly rebel soldiers, that Booth, on the first or second day before his death, fell in with them near Garrett's and asked their advice and assistance in his efforts to escape. He informed them that he had killed Lincoln, and thereby made a good Southern man President.

One of the parties, whose name is Dawson, said to him that if he meant that he had made Andy Johnson President, he had done the worst possible thing for the South: as he was more extreme in his views, and a greater enemy to the South than Lincoln. Booth replied that it was a mistake; that Johnson as a candidate or office-seeker had to say a great many things, but that as President he could do as he pleased; that he was bound to be a friend to the South, and that if he went back on him (Booth) he would have him hung higher than Haman. These men belong to good families and have excellent characters, and can be produced as witnesses.

Here the paper ends, but the following which was originally the final clause and is now cancelled, is still legible.

For the names of Dawson and Allen, used above, leave blanks, or substitute the names of such persons as you know will take their parts.

[B] THURSDAY MORNING, April 18, 1867.

DEAR SIR: A telegram calls me to Philadelphia and I go on the 11 o'clock A. M. train. I therefore send you an envelope in which you can send me by mail your statement.

I hope you will be able to put it in the office this evening so that I can get it next Monday. Wishing you every success, I am yours truly,

J. M. ASHLEY.

[At and after the word "Statement" above, the words "incorporating the verbal" are stricken studiously out.]

[C] TOLEDO, Ohio, April 28, 1867.

MY DEAR SIR: On my return home to-day I found your favor and the promised statement inclosed. I expect to be in Washington on Thursday, and will see you that day or the next morning. Truly your friend,

J. M. ASHLEY.

C. A. Dunham Esq., Washington.

This letter seems to have come here in a common envelope superscribed "C. A. Dunham, President," and is much pocket-soiled. The same applies to the following:

[D]. SATURDAY, A. M. June 1, 1867.

DEAR SIR: Your note is just recieved. Let your counsel act as he deem best, taking advantage of every legal point which may be presented, I think the course proposed by them is all that we want. Truly, J. M. ASHLEY.

Next we have the following:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, July 8, 1867.

MY DEAR SIR: I have just seen your wife, and have your letter. You may rest assured that I do not credit the false and stupid reports made against you. If you had the letters I know you would never send copies to J——. If you can put the originals in my hands I will say that no one shall take or destroy them without your express order in writing, except you are released. Will see your wife again this evening. Respectfully, J. M. ASHLEY.

C. A. Dunham.

This note is not written in ink, but in pencil, and though dated "House Reps." is upon a half sheet of plain note paper, apparently torn from some note which had been carried in the pocket. It comes here in an envelope, superscribed C A. Dunham, Esq., present. The envelope also shows some apparently idle scribbling.

[F] APRIL, 25 '67

DUNHAM: It is all right. The matter will rest for the present, or until the thing is arranged in May. You will not leave the city ad interim. Mr. A. will return next week, when any other matters will be adjusted. Yours,

W. B. M.

This is written on a small scrap, in ink, superscribed C. A. Dunham, Present. On a still smaller and much soiled scrap in pencil, but evidently by the same hand, is this memorandum or explanation:

[G.] 1. The Court cannot act without being a particeps criminis.

2. Congress will, at the proper time, increase its power.

3. Witnesses will first be called before the committee.

This, sir, completes a full and literal recital of all the papers or other adhering data before me. The parcel comprising all but the pardon papers reached this office in an envelope from the Executive Mansion, endorsed, "Received from Mrs. Dunham, July 30, 1867." The papers having come from the hands of a person whose application for pardon was undergoing official examination here, were for very obvious reasons, associated with it in considering the matter. Struck by their extraordinary character, yet remembering in how unexpected and casual a manner they had been received at the Executive office, I immediately determined that until I should have made this report, their quality and significance, whatever these may be, should remain unchanged by investigation, or by any extraneous connection or association whatever not only of record, but as far as practicable in my own mind. This course it is necessary to bear in recollection in the act of estimating the probable weight or value of the allegations. Never having seen the hand writing of the Hon. Mr. Ashley, I thought it due to him that I should not proceed without acquiring a notion of his genuine chirography. I therefore exhibited that letter, which was written by Mr. Ashley to recommend the pardon of Dunham to a gentleman acquainted with his handwriting. The latter without hesitation recognized that letter as genuine. The others strikingly resemble it.

In conclusion, I beg leave to express the pro ound sensibility with which I find myself obliged to bring to the serious notice of the President of the United States accusations and papers which must occasion him painful embarrassment They expose prominent members of the Legislature of the Union to the shocking suspicion of having conspired with a convicted perjurer for a stupendous imposition, first upon the House of Representatives, then upon the people, and then upon the Senate of the United States, for the purpose of effecting the impeachment and removal from office of a President of the United States solely upon suborned testimony. I need not say how greatly astonished mankind would be, was it charged that a scheme so abominable was heightened by the peculiar wickedness of attempting to induce the intended victim himself, through appeals to his clemency, to qualify by a pardon, with consequent competency to act and testify, the principal instrument of the imposture.

But impossible as the existance of such a conspiracy may seem, is not the President exposed to a grave accountability for whatever consequences may possibly follow an incredulity far too generous in the premises, to be indulged merely because these adventitious data have been thrust upon his casual notice by a party who has been dishonored by a criminal verdict, but who is still, in the expressed opinion of competent professional persons, qualified to be a vehicle of truth in a court of justice?

I thus lay the whole matter before your Excellency for your better judgment. In the meantime the application for pardon will be suspended.

Very respectively, your obedient servant, JOHN M. BRINCKLEY,
Assistant Attorney-General.

To Andrew Johnson, President of the United States.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY,

FOR TREASURER,

FOR POOR DIRECTOR,

FOR AUDITOR,

HENRY W. WILLIAMS.

The Radical candidate for Supreme Judge, stands upon a platform, in which occurs the following language:

"Resolved, That warned by past misfortunes, we ask that the Supreme Court of the State be placed in harmony with the political opinions of a m jority of the people."

Thus, the Supreme Court, which is the final arbiter between the weak and the strong, between minorities and majorities, is to be swayed by political bias against the rights of that portion of the people who may happen to be in the minority. Have minorities no rights which majorities are bound to respect? Nay, are not the fewest number of people lawyers, or jurists, and is not often the smallest minority right, on questions of law, rather than the mass who have had no legal or judicial education? Who, therefore, could trust a man as Supreme Judge, who will agree to substitute for his own deliberate judgment, the crude opinions of the mob?

Again,

HENRY W. WILLIAMS

is the candidate of a party which holds that a man may repudiate his contract to pay a debt in gold and silver, by paying the same in paper money, thus actually making Government bonds worth n more than ordinary paper money. This is repudiation. Who, therefore, will vote for H. W. Williams, and become a repudiationist?

LIBERTY, LAW AND RIGHT!

No Monarchy, No Centralized Despotism, No Negro States!

GRAND DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING!

The Democrats of Bedford county, and all others not too unreasonable to join hands with them in the great effort about to be made by the calm and thinking men of the country, to restore the Union, to bring the government back within the safe limits of the Constitution, to put an end to the political confusion which now exists, to prevent anarchy and renewed civil strife, to reinstate Republican governments in the territory now ruled by the Five Military Monarchs, to avert the calamity of Negro rule in the excluded States, and to make some certain and reasonable provision for the ultimate extinguishment of the Public Debt, are hereby invited to assemble at the Court House, on MONDAY EVENING, SEPT. 2. Addresses will be delivered by distinguished speakers. Let there be a grand rally of the true friends of the Republic. Come, Democrats; Come, Conservatives; Come, reasonable "Republicans;" Come, one and all, and let us reason together.

GEO. MARDORFF,
Ch'n Dem. Co. Com.
W. C. SCHAEFFER, Sec'y.

IT is said that Surratt is to be tried again as soon as Congress can pass a law to put negroes on the Jury. White men are not supposed to be intelligent enough to understand the case.

DODGES THE QUESTION.

The Inquirer still refuses to answer our question, whether it and its party are in favor of the establishment of Negro Suffrage in Pennsylvania, but asks us, in return, whether we believe that "a deserter, or rebel, and traitor, one who left a loyal community to join rebel marauders as if you choose, and who did all he could to destroy our Union, murder our friends and brothers and desolate our homes, has a better right to have a voice in the making of our laws than the loyal negro who fought and bled for the Union," &c. &c. We can easily answer that question; at any rate we will not dodge it, as the Inquirer does ours. A convicted murderer, deserter, or traitor, never had, has not now, and never will have, a voice in the making of our laws. A man convicted of murder, is hanged upon the gallows, a soldier convicted of desertion, is shot by a file of his comrades, a citizen convicted of Treason, is put to death, or banished. Of course, we are not in favor of taking the murderer from the gallows, the deserter from his coffin, or the traitor from the gibbet, to give either of them "a voice in the making of our laws;" nor did we ever think of making a comparison between them and negro soldiers. But ought negroes to vote because great criminals ought not, and cannot? Such logic would be simply ridiculous. But if the Inquirer means by deserters such men as are unlawfully disfranchised in this county and State, on the ground of desertion, we say they are entitled "to a voice in the making of our laws" rather than any negro. Let us put the question personally to the Inquirer. Do the editors of that paper hold that any negro in this county, is better entitled to vote than such men as Martin Blackburn, Emanuel Smith, Francis Ott, Joel Diehl, H. W. Lee, Nathan Lee, John T. Foor, Shannon Hardman, Jesse Geller, S. L. Wilhelm, Rev. David Stufft, Westley Layton, Peter Felton, Abraham Garlick, Samuel Gogley? These white men are all put down as deserters in the list published by the Adjutant General under the law disfranchising persons of that class. We mention them because they are well known as respectable citizens and yet are disfranchised under Radical legislation. Now, answer us, Mr. Inquirer, which ought rather be allowed to vote, such men, or negroes?

As to the question of the Inquirer, "which do you prefer, rebel white man or loyal negro soldier?" we answer it, by saying that we prefer the white race, at all times and under all circumstances. We are no such miserable traitor to our own color and blood, no such impious scoffer at the eternal decree of Almighty God, as to place the negro above the white man, especially in matters pertaining to civil government. The Inquirer men can have a monopoly of that sort of business, so far as we are concerned. And, now, in conclusion, having answered the questions of the Inquirer, frankly and fairly, we DEMAND a straight-forward answer to our question, "Are the Inquirer and its party in favor of the establishment of Negro Suffrage in Pennsylvania?" Now, let us have no dodging, no shirking, no shilly-shallying, but a fair and square answer.

LIGHT.

A ray of light comes from the Cimmerian darkness in which Hunnicutt and Botts and Hawxhurst have lately held their infernal orgies. A meeting of ex-officers of the Federal army residing in Richmond has just been held in that city, for the purpose of calling a State Convention of the Union officers, soldiers and sailors, resident in Virginia. This meeting of Union soldiers adopted resolutions denouncing the attempt on the part of a few desperate political adventurers, to turn the State over to the domination of the blacks. The following remarks by prominent Union officers are indicative of the spirit of the meeting:

"Lieut-Col. Merrill said that he would rather take by the hand a Confederate soldier who fought from honest intentions in a wrong cause, if he honestly accepted the situation, than the so-called Virginia loyalist—even if he does have a newspaper—who voted for the ordinance of secession, and thereby put the former into service against his will."

"Colonel Egbert said he was not in favor of keeping in office those renegade Virginians who voted for secession and then went North as Union shriekers, in preference to men who had perilled their lives in defense of their country."

Let Virginians take heart! Let the white people of the Old Dominion register and vote and they will yet save the good old State from Radical destruction.

WE have an inflated currency, depreciated in value, and yet money is as scarce now as when gold and silver were in fashion. So much for the unconstitutional act of Congress making greenbacks a legal tender. It has driven gold and silver out of circulation, but has not made money more abundant.

A PRETTY BUSINESS.

It appears that Mr. Stanton, formerly Secretary of War, kept a corps of political agents throughout the South, for the distribution of campaign funds and documents, and that these agents received the pay of officers of the army. There can be no doubt that these tools of Stanton were used to band together the negroes in the secret oath-bound associations which prevail so largely in the excluded States. It turns out, also, that that pattern of piety, Gen. O. O. Howard, is receiving the pay of a Major General, as Superintendent of the Freedmen's Bureau, whilst the act of Congress fixes the pay of the Superintendent at $3,000 per annum. O! O! Howard! Hadn't you better air your patent piety a little? So it goes! The Soldier must wait for his bounty till the Radical scoundrels get through with establishing their black Know Nothing lodges, and if there be any money left in the Treasury after that, perhaps the boys that wore the blue, may get something. The following, from the Washington correspondence of the Baltimore Sun, throws a flood of light on this subject:

The President sometime since directed the Secretary of War to issue an order mustering out of service all volunteer officers not absolutely required, and detail in their places officers of the regular army. It is now found that a number of volunteer officers are yet in service, receiving salaries, especially in the South. Some of these who were kept on duty by special order of the President nominally, but really upon the suggestion of Mr. Stanton, are prominent officers of the republican organization for the distribution of funds and political documents in the Southern States. Their salaries for this labor are virtually paid by the government, for their services are not required in the military department. General Howard is receiving the pay of a major general of volunteers whilst acting superintendent of the Freedmen's Bureau. The law does not require a military officer in that position, and fixes the salary at $3,000. It is understood that an order will be issued shortly mustering out of service all such volunteer officers as can be dispensed with, and directing that the officers of the regular army be assigned in their places, whenever practicable.

THE REPUDIATION CANDIDATE.

Judge Sharswood decided in the case of Borie vs. Trott, that when one man contracted with another for the payment of a debt in gold or silver, he could not pay that debt in paper money. This decision, just and reasonable and in accordance with correct principles as it is, has been made, by the Radical press, the subject of the grossest misrepresentation and the pretext for the vilest partizan abuse of its author. By such a course, it was, doubtless, hoped to lessen the great popularity of that eminent jurist as a candidate for the suffrages of the people. But, the "howling Pharisees" (vide Greeley) who raised the hue and cry against Judge Sharswood, on account of this decision, are beginning to discover that they have only published an argument against their own candidate. For, if Judge Williams holds that when a man contracts to pay gold or silver, he can discharge his debt by paying greenbacks, he holds that a man may deliberately repudiate his own contract! Nay, further, if he holds that Congress can make greenbacks a legal tender, and it should enact that the interest on U. S. Bonds shall be paid in Treasury notes, instead of gold, he must also hold that the Government can repudiate its contract with those who have invested in its bonds! Such views make Judge Williams an advocate of REPUDIATION. How do you like the out-look, friend bond-holder?

GRIT.

The trouble with Mr. Johnson's administration, has, hitherto, consisted in yielding too much to its enemies. But the President seems at last to have taken the reins in his own hands and to be determined to drive the car of State in person. He shows that he possesses a goodly share of that grit so much admired by the American people. He has defied the impeachers and his very defiance has discomfited them. He has kicked Stanton and Holt out of their places, and removed that pompous tyrant, King Sheridan, from the command of the Texas and Louisiana district. Grit like that is bound to win.

ANDREW JACKSON once had the same rotten Bank men to contend against that now assail Judge Sharswood. The people rose up in their might and sustained Old Hickory in his struggle with the U. S. Bank, and so will they now rally to the support of those who cling to Jacksonian principles and strive to give us a sound currency by refusing to give their adherence to the repudiation doctrines of the present advocates of United States Banks.

THE President has appointed Gen. Geo. H. Thomas to succeed Gen. Sheridan at New Orleans, Gen. Hancock to take the place of Gen. Thomas in the department of Tennessee, and Gen. Sheridan to succeed Hancock in the department of the Missouri.

THE LATE GOV. PORTER.

We find the annexed interesting account of the life and public services of the late David R. Porter, in the Lancaster Intelligencer, of the 7th inst:

Ex-Governor David R. Porter died at his residence in Harrisburg yesterday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, in the 79th year of his age. Thousands throughout Pennsylvania and elsewhere will read this announcement with emotions of unfeigned sadness. The deceased was one of the very few public men of the purer and better days of the Republic who had been spared to witness the exciting and revolutionary events through which our country is now struggling. During the greater portion of an active and useful life he was closely identified with all public interests and the political welfare of his native State, and was as widely known as any of his cotemporaries in public life. To the last his interest in the public welfare continued to be unabated, and he was always ready to serve his State and country.

Governor Porter was born in Norristown, Montgomery county, in the year 1788, of distinguished parentage. His Father, General Andrew Porter, commanded the artillery under General Wayne in the Revolution, and after the termination of that glorious struggle, was the first Surveyor General of Pennsylvania. Geo. B. Porter, a brother, of Ex-Governor Porter, held the office of Governor of Michigan, and another brother, James Madison Porter, was Secretary of War under President Tyler, and, for a number of years, judge of various courts in this State. Early in his life Governor Porter located in Huntingdon county where he engaged in business. He held the office of Prothonotary of the county for nine years, and in 1834 was elected to represent that district in the Senate of Pennsylvania. His abilities as a Senator attracted attention, and in 1838 he was nominated as the Democratic candidate for Governor and elected. So satisfactorily to the people did he discharge the duties of his high office that he was renominated and re-elected in 1841, when he was succeeded by Francis R. Shunk. Gov. Porter was a fine writer, no great public speaker, but a man of superior intellect, sound judgment, iron will and indomitable energy. During his governorship the disgraceful and terrible Know Nothing riots occurred in the city of Philadelphia. Gov. Porter at once hastened to the scene of the disturbance. So great was the excitement that bitter threats were made against him by the rioters, in case he should make his appearance in the streets with the military. His friends in the city, being alarmed at the apparent danger, met the Governor at the foot of the old inclined plane with private carriages, and endeavored to induce him to leave the public conveyance and suffer them to conduct him into the city. This he peremptorily refused to do, telling his friends that if he was to die in the discharge of his duties he might as well be killed in the cars as elsewhere. To his good management and unflinching personal courage the suppression of the riots was mainly due. He was a man who never shrunk from the discharge of any public duty, and in all respects was a model Governor.

From the time of his retirement from the Gubernatorial Chair, Governor Porter persistently declined all nominations, though constantly taking a deep interest in public affairs. The Democratic Party always looked up to him as a safe counsellor, and they will feel that in his death they have lost one of that noble and heroic race of men who shed lustre on the history of the State. In private life Governor Porter was a most courteous and amiable gentleman, a warm and staunch friend, an honest man, commanding the warmest devotion of even his political enemies. Peace to his ashes!

A GATHERING OF THE "AMERICAN CITIZENS OF AFRICAN 'SCENT."—During the middle of the present week, notwithstanding Old Sol poured his rays down with intense fierceness upon the streets of this devoted city, there were numerous dark clouds flitting to and fro upon our principal thoroughfares, but not in the least mollifying the almost oppressive heat of an August sun. There has been a gathering of the clans of darkness from all parts of the Old Keystone—a mingling of

"Black spirits and white, Blue spirits and grey,"

with a huge preponderance in favor of the former. The complexion of this "loyal" assemblage is best described, however, in the chorus of an old song we were wont to hear in our juvenile days, which ran thus:

Some were black,
Some were blacker,
And some were de color ob a chaw terbacker.

The occasion was the assembling of the "Equal Rights League of Pennsylvania" (high sounding, but darkey-like) at the Washington Street (Colored) Presbyterian Church, on Wednesday. The day was one of August's warmest, and we were therefore compelled reluctantly to stay away. We are fond of reading of the odors from "Araby the Blest," but are decidedly averse to inhaling those emanating from Africa! The very-air seemed reddent from African perfume, and our Drug Stores were extensively patronized in consequence by the "white trash" for the other kinds. What the "Equal Rights League of Pennsylvania" did, is fully related in the Radical Philadelphia Inquirer of Thursday. They doubtless felt "glorious" over the result of the so-called election in Tennessee, and passed a number of resolves which will, in all probability, be carried into effect at the next meeting of their servants of the "Rump."

We believe that Old Thad, Sumner, Kelley, Stanton, Holt, Sickels, Sheridan, Fred. Douglass, and the host of other prominent "loyalists" were not present; but quite a number of "big nigs" and "little nigs" from Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Pittsburgh, including Capt. Rauch, Dr. Hargreaves, and professor (!) Still of the "Art Tonsorial," were in attendance, and took part in the proceedings.—Capt. Rauch, Dr. Hargreaves and Rev. Bro. Nelson represented the Temperance element. The assemblage joyfully dispersed singing an old African hymn, a couplet of which is doubtless familiar to our readers—

O what a meeting dar will be
When we gain de victory!

The proposed Pic nic by our colored "breddern and sistern" of Reading, in honor of the assembling in their midst of the "Equal Rights League of Pennsylvania," did not take place on Thursday, on account of the rain. Basking in sunshine is a negro's delight, but for wet weather he has a supreme contempt. The "Clerk of the weather" must certantly be "disloyal," else he would not have cut up such capers when the "pet lambs" were anticipating so much pleasure. He needs "reconstruction" badly, and his case will be attended to when the "Rump" meets in November.—Till then, Africa, adieu!—Reading Gazette.

NEGRO CONVENTION IN READING, PA.

READING, Pa., Aug. 14.—The Pennsylvania negro Equal Rights League held two harmonious and enthusiastic sessions here to-day. There was a very full attendance, and several speeches were delivered—one by the President, William Nesbit; another by the chaplain, Jos. R. Nelson—expressing joy at the progress made by the Leagues in its educational efforts, and promising the day was not far distant when negroes would vote in Pennsylvania.

Captain E. H. Rauch, a white man, spoke at length. Pennsylvania was no longer a slave hunting ground, thanks to Thaddeus Stevens. (The mention of Mr. Stevens' name drew forth unbounded applause.) He promised that soon the right of franchise must be vested in the negro.

In the afternoon a series of resolutions were passed, thanking the Legislature for the bill granting negroes the right to ride in public conveyances; thanking Congress for its protection; congratulating the country on the Republican victory in Tennessee; counselling the negroes of the South to stand by the Republicans, who are the only hope here and there, and appointing a committee to visit Congress and press the extension of the franchise bill to every State in the Union.

The Indian War---Reported Battle---Duel Prevented.

ST. LOUIS, August 17.—An Omaha dispatch says a battle is reported in the neighborhood of Plain Creek, between 500 Sioux and 200 Pawnee scouts, lasting six hours. The Sioux were routed with great loss, the scouts having been reinforced by United States troops.—This report needs confirmation. Indian commissioners reached Omaha yesterday and held a secret session, when they proceeded up the river.

An encounter took place yesterday at Fort Hooker, between Gen. McCall and Mr. Edgar, of the commissary department. A challenge passed between them, but Col. Crane put them both in the guardhouse.

All sutlers at Big Creek are driven away by the military, and their goods confiscated, on the grounds that they have no United States lisences.

COUNTING THE COST.—As we have not omitted to mention before, the cost of running the reconstsruction law is to be felt by tax-payers, debt-burdened people of the country. To carry out the work of registration alone, more than a million and a half of dollars, in addition to the half million of last spring, have been appropriated. As little prominence as possible has been given to this feature. The noise has been made over the dradful obstinacy of rebels, and especially over the rebellious state of the Presidential intentions. Such clap-trap was never turned to larger account. It costs the people two millions of dollars this season; and what the military expenditures are to be can be guessed with considerable accuracy. It was thought that the country had fortunately succeeded in bringdown the military establisment to a modest standard; but to advance partisan schemes hundreds of millons more are to be piled upon the national debt, to defray the necessary expenditures of the War Department in the continued military occupation of the Southern States. There is a people rendered helpless by the course and cost of a long war. They have neither means nor men. They frankly admit defeat, and come forward to pledge themselves anew to maintain the Union. They are raising their first crop since the termination of the contest, and now is the time to restore all the former relations with them, through the natural and kindly agencies of trade and commerce. Just when Providence itself drops the suggestion, Congress mounts a stricter guard over them. It puts bayonets to their throats, and denounces them for worse rebels than when they were in arms. The country is kept in distraction by those means, and the people of the North are expected to pay the bills of misrule. How long will it last?—Boston Post.

"COPPERHEAD SPEECH."—A good joke was perpetrated at the fair grounds, 4th of July celebration, at Carlisle. A young man from one of the rural districts, who had, it seems, given more attention to politics than he had to the history of his country, stood near to Prof. Gillelen as he read the declaration of Independence. After listening attentively for some time, he turned away in disgust, and said to an acquaintance—"do you know who that man is who is making that copperhead speech?" His friend, convulsed with laughter, told him it was not a speech but the Declaration of Independence he had been listening to. The rural Radical walked off without saying a word in reply, but his countenance indicated that he was not at all pleased with Thomas Jefferson's sentiments.

THERE is great fear in some parts of Florida of a negro insurrection. The blacks claim the right to be the dominant class, and threaten a war of extermination. Knowing the swamps and everglades perfectly they can easily evade pursuit and capture, in the event of war. When the Seminoles occupied the peninsula, they evaded and harrassed the regular troops for many years. The negroes know this fact and expect to improve upon the Indian tactics. They may find themselves wofully mistaken.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FACTS FOR THE PUBLIC,
Easily verified by examination, which we respectfully invite.

1. We have the largest establishment for the manufacture and sale of Clothing in Philadelphia, extending through from 518 Market street to 511 Minor street, and occupied exclusively by ourselves.
2. Our building, having been constructed by us for our own exclusive occupancy, and for the business to which it is entirely devoted, unites all the conveniences and appliances which have been found necessary or desirable.
3. We have an ample cash capital, enabling us to make all purchases for cash and giving us a selection, at the most favorable prices, from the markets of the entire world. IN THIS PARTICULAR, WE HAVE ADVANTAGES SHARED BY NO OTHER HOUSE IN THE TRADE. This fact is well known to the entire business community.
4. We sell our goods for cash only, which, though it restricts our business to those prepared to purchase in that way, enables us to give them such advantages as no house doing a different business can possibly offer.
5. A business experience of a quarter of a century has informed us fully of the wants of the public and of the best way to meet them.
6. We employ the best and most experienced Cutters and Workmen in making up our goods—the style, fit and make of which are unsurpassed.
7. All persons, whatever may be their physical peculiarities (unless deformed), can be accurately fitted at once from our stock, in most cases better than by goods made to order, and prices 25 to 50 per cent lower.
8. Our business is large and constantly increasing, enabling us to keep the largest, best assorted and most complete stock of Men's, Youths' and Boys' Clothing in Philadelphia, to which large daily additions are made of fresh goods, replacing those sold.
9. For reasons already enumerated, we can and do sell at prices guaranteed in all cases lower than the lowest elsewhere, or the sale cancelled and money refunded.
10. All goods when offered for sale are represented to be exactly what they are.
11. When buyers are, for any reason, dissatisfied with a purchase made, if reported within a reasonable time, we pledge ourselves, by exchange, refunding of money or otherwise, to give full satisfaction in every case, and request that all such may be reported to us for adjustment.

SHATTERED CONSTITUTIONS RESTORED by Helmbold's Extract Buchu.

PROOFS OF THE SUPERIOR QUALITY OF THE AMERICAN WATCH MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

The American Watch Company, of Waltham, Mass., respectfully submit that their Watches are cheaper, more accurate, less complex, more durable, better adapted for general use, and more easily kept in order and repaired than any other watches in the market. They are simpler in structure, and therefore stronger, and less likely to be injured than the majority of foreign watches, which are composed of from 125 to 300 pieces, while in an old English watch there are more than 700 parts. How they run under the hardest trial watches can have, is shown by the following letter:

PENN. RAILROAD COMPANY,
OFFICE OF THE GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT,
ALTOONA, Pa., 15 Dec., 1866.

Gentlemen: The watches manufactured by you have been in use on this railroad for several years by our enginemen, to whom we furnish watches as part of our equipment. There are now some three hundred of them carried on our line, and we consider them good and reliable time-keepers. Indeed, I have great satisfaction in saying your watches give us less trouble, and have worn and do wear much longer without repairs than any watches we have ever had in use on this road As you are aware, we formerly trusted to those of English manufacture, of acknowledged good reputation; but as a class they never keep time as correctly, nor have they done as good service as yours.

In these statements I am sustained by my predecessor, Mr. Lewis, whose experience extended over a series of years.

Respectfully,
EDWARD H. WILLIAMS,
General Superintendent.
American Watch Co., Waltham.

We make now five different grades of watches, named respectively as follows:

APPLETON, TRACY & CO.,	Waltham, Mass.
WALTHAM WATCH COMPANY,	Waltham, Mass.
P. S. BARTLETT,	Waltham, Mass.
WM. ELLERY,	Boston, Mass.
HOME WATCH COMPANY,	Boston, Mass.

All of these, with the exception of the Home Watch Company, are warranted by the American Watch Company to be of the best material, on the most approved principle, and to possess every requisite for a reliable time-keeper. Every dealer selling these watches is provided with the Company's printed card of guarantee, which should accompany each Watch sold, so that buyers may feel sure that they are purchasing the genuine article. There are numerous counterfeits and imitations of our Watches sold throughout the country, and we would caution purchasers to be on their guard against imposition.

Any grades of Waltham Watches may be purchased of Watch Dealers throughout the country.

for this is a silent revolution. It is now going on
In Every State,
including the married state, the single state, and all states of the human hair which are not in harmony with beauty. Of whatever undesirable tinge woman's ringlets or man's locks or whiskers may be, the evil is remedied instantly by Cristadoro's Hair Dye, which is harmless as water, and certain to produce a natural black or brown in five minutes. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, 68 Maiden Lane, New York. Sold by all Druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. aug16w4

NO CURE-ALL.—But if you want a medicine that will cure Chronic (not inflammatory) Rheumatism, Mumps, Sore Throat, Swellings, Old Sores, Bruises, Toothache, Headache, Insect Stings, Pains in the Back and Chest, also, internally, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Croups and Vomiting, you have it in Dr. Tobias' Wonderful Venetian Liniment. It never fails when used according to the directions. Every drop of it is put up by Dr. Tobias himself, and he has done so for nineteen years. His medicine is known throughout the world. The best physicians recommend it. Thousands of certificates can be seen at the depot, 56 Cortlandt Street. No family having children, should be without it in case of Croup. Thousands of children are saved by it annually. Use it when first taken according to the directions, and you will never lose a child. Ladies will find it valuable in eradicating pimples and blotches. Only 50 cts. and $1 per bottle. Sold by the druggists throughout the United States and in Europe. Depot, 56 Cortlandt Street, New York. aug16w4.

SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC.—This medicine, invented by Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, is intended to dissolve the food and make it into chyle, the first process of digestion. By cleansing the stomach with Schenck's Mandrake Pills, the Tonic soon restores the appetite, and food that could not be eaten before using it will be easily digested.

Consumption cannot be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the SEAWEED TONIC, and three or four boxes of the MANDRAKE PILLS will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia.

Dr. Schenck makes professional visits in New York, Boston, and at his principal office in Philadelphia every week. See daily papers of each place, or his pamphlet on consumption, for his days of visitation.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all druggists and dealers; price $1 50 per bottle, or $7 50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE "SWALLOP" PARTY.—The "Swallops" of the Inquirer have printed another article on the Poor House. It is simply a lie that there is any combination for the removal of the Steward and Miller. All we have to say, is, that if those officers want to retain the good opinion of the public, they had better repudiate the "honey-fugling" of the Inquirer. The caresses of the editors of that sheet are not of so virtuous a character that they will sweeten the savor of any one's reputation who willingly receives them. The Inquirer seems determined to run this campaign on the "Swallop" question.

ASTUTE.—The Dogberry of the Inquirer goes to the trouble of garbling the opinion of Judge Sharswood in the case of Borie vs. Trott, and places the disjointed extracts at the head of his editorial columns. Why does he not publish the opinion entire, so that his readers may learn what Judge Sharswood's opinion really is in regard to the constitutionality of greenbacks. We dare him to publish the whole decision. We intend to print it on our outside just as soon as we can get room, regarding it as the very best argument that could be made to the people for the election of a man who has the ability and honesty to render so just and correct a decision.

MATCH GAME OF BASE BALL AT SAXTON.—Bedford County Ahead!—A friend at Saxton sends us the annexed report of a match game at Base Ball, played at Saxton, on the 15th inst., between the Saxonian Club, of that place, and the Resolute Club, of Dudley, Huntingdon co. THE LADY'S FRIEND, FOR SEPTEMBER, 1867. "The Village Doctor," an expressive picture, is the title of the Steel Engraving in the September number of this popular magazine. A beautiful Steel Fashion Plate, with numerous other Engravings of the Fashions, follow, and the usual piece of popular Music, worth of itself the price of the number. The Literary matter is both interesting and instructive. Price (with engraving) $2.50 a year; Four copies (with one engraving) $6.00. One copy of Lady,s Friend and one of Saturday Evening Post (and one engraving), $4.00. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

MUCH has been sung of the "Maid with Golden Hair." No song, however, has yet been able to make that color a popular one for any considerable length of time. Light red, faded or sandy hair are eqally under the ban of public opinion. We are happy to announce to our readers who desire to change those colors, that three applications of Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia will give them beautiful auburn tresses possessing all that soft, lustrous appearance so desirable in this chief adornment of female beauty.

HON. HIRAM FINDLAY.—We had the pleasure of a visit, during the past week, from Hiram Findlay, Esq., of Somerset county. Mr. Findlay is again presented by his county as a candidate for the Legislature. He represents the iron and coal interests of his county, and is deeply concerned in the construction of the Connellsville railroad, the route of which passes through some of his lands. Mr. Findlay is the very man who ought to be elected.

"REBEL SUFFRAGE vs. NEGRO SUFFRAGE."—The Bedford Inquirer should not be so hard on its own friends. The only "rebel" that voted in Bedford county last fall, was one of the heroes of the Texas "cart war," a rebel soldier who helped "to shoot down Union men," and who capped his infamy by voting the Radical ticket at the Bedford township window. Spare your friends, Mr. Inquirer.

TUSCARORA.—Prof. S. H. Shumaker, Principal of the Tuscarora Seminary, and his excellent lady, are stopping at the Mengel House, in this place. We are always glad to meet the genial and scholarly Professor.

DRUGS, &C.—If you want good fresh drugs, excellent perfumery, the best patent medicines, stationery of any kind, or a good glass of sparkling soda water, call at the Drug Store of H. Heckerman & Son, (late J. L. Lewis') on Julianna st. Give them a call.

REGULATOR.—Don't forget the immortal Regulator. Irvine and Statler never surrender. Call and see their fine stock of boots and shoes, queensware, notions, &c., &c.

PONS ASINORUM—AUT FONS SALUTARIS?—A classical friend of ours, has handed us a corrected copy of the Ode, "On the Medicinal Spring of Bedford," written by James Ross, formerly of Chambersburg, at one time Professor of Languages in the University of Pennsylvania, and the author of Ross' Latin Grammar and Ross' Greek Grammar. The Ode, as published in the Inquirer, some weeks since, was full of typographical errors which marred the beauty of the poem. For instance, the caption read, "In Pontem Bedfordiæ Salutarem," that is, "Upon the Medicinal Bridge of Bedford!" Also, in the third line of the first stanza, latebras should be read instead of catebras, &c., &c. We give the poem as corrected by our friend:

[TRANSLATION.†]

To JOHN ANDERSON, M. D., these verses are inscribed as a token of Friendship by the author JAMES ROSS.

ON THE MEDICINAL SPRING OF BEDFORD.

From the base of a lofty mountain issuing, O fountain, thy profusion of waters, thou sendest forth in silence from thy fountain, deep in earth's womb embowelled: them mingling with the stream which murmurs below, thou losest.

No verdant plains nor verdant fields are nourished by thy stream irriguous. Nor flocks nor younglings of the herd dost thou with food supply. To no prowling beasts of prey do thy shady, thy romantic banks, afford shelter or refuge.

Hence, blooming virgins gay, matrons old and aged sires, and youths lately in wedlock joined, greatly delight to saunter along thy streams to quaff thy healing waters.

While, with joyful satisfaction, the valetudinarian in the waters of this fountain laves himself, the diseases of the breast, the pains of the head, the distresses of the side and deafness—all shrink from the healing efficacy of the healthful element.

Let those drink whom the gout torments, and those whom distressing cough annoys,—diseases which yield not to the art or care of the physician however learned. In drinking they certain aid shall find.

The humble cottager and the wealthy lord, however weakened by disease, shall reinvigorate their systsm by drinking these waters. Tender eyes shall regain their strength, lost powers of digestion shall again return, and the enfeebled lions with new strength be girded.

Let the sons of leisure and votaries of amusement on these health-preserving waters regale themselves. The vigorous young man and the rosy cheeked maiden from them receive no harm. Rich and poor innumerous can well attest the truths I sing.

Bedford, Pennsylvania,
August 29, 1809.

†By Rev. JAMES WILLSON, Teacher of Languages, at Bedford, 1810.

A few hours before his departure, he called his mother to his side, and said: "Ma, your dear little boy is going to die." And, when she asked him if he wanted to die, he said he did.—And as the icy hand of death was about to lay hold of him, he kissed his father and mother and little sisters for the last time, and said: "I am now going home." Thus this little boy was taken, as a beautiful flower, to the Paradise of God, there to bloom forever. "For of such is the kingdom of heaven."

ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.
The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.
For sale wholesale and retail by ☞ Send for descriptive circular and price list.

The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cotttge Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.

1867. —"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requsite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with consciencious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
EDITIONS.
The WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York ARGUS has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.
1. Its Market Reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge Live Stock Markets; the New York Country Produce and General Produce Markets; special and valuable Hop Intelligence; a department of Agricultural Reading; all together composing an unrivalled handbook of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, Country Merchant, &c.
2. A page or more reserved for entertaining Fireside Reading for the Family circle, embracing the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc., and a page for the Discussion of all Prominent Topics of general interest, political agricultural, financial, literary, etc.
3. Its Digest of the News is not, like most weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the Daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the Daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the Weekly.
In every postoffice district there should be found some active, public spirited Democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by counseling with his Democratic friends and making a determined effort to form as large a club as possible for the WEEKLY WORLD.
The SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, which, by omitting a great mass of city advertisements from the Daily, contains all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news, cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature. Published Tuesday and Friday.
The DAILY WORLD affords a complete compendium of, and commentary upon, the news of every day.
